Integrated Relocation Services
2627 Sandy Plains Road
Marietta, Georgia 30066

To future customers of Integrated Relocation Services:

Words can not describe the commitment that Integrated had toward us during the entire relocation process. From the build out of the space, through the move we have never seen such a keen attention to detail as with the team from Integrated. Not only did they help us identify problems with the space prior to moving, but alerted us to the common moving problems which no doubt saved us thousands of dollars and numerous headaches.

The voice and data cabling, furniture installation and the move were all the best we have ever experienced. We are very confident to recommend Integrated Relocation Services as a highly qualified provider of moving services.

Sincerely,

Schnabel Engineering South, LLC
